"The Russian Captain" is the story about John Palmer, a former British agent of the MI6. After several years in hiding he receives the news of that his father has been murdered. Seeking revenge he decides to return society where his old enemies soon becomes aware of his presence. This escalates into a serious conflict in neutral Sweden where Americans, Brits and Russians all have interest in John Palmer's survival or death.

This actionpacked spy-movie will be shot during 2008 and will be released during 2009. More information will be displayed at <http://www.therussiancaptain.com/> and <http://www.johnpalmermovie.com/>.
